DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1- 31, 33 – 52, and 54 – 65 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art taken either singularly or in a combination fails to anticipate or fairly suggest the limitations of the independent claims, in such a manner that a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 102 or 103 would be proper. The prior art fails to teach a combination of all the claimed features as presented in independent claims 1, 14, 22, 33, 45, 47, 48, 51, 52, 54, and 62 - 65, for example which include the membrane extends over a cavity in the substrate and the membrane into the cavity, and the membrane is under tensile stress, the membrane is substantially circular, each one of the adaptive lenses fabricated in a single substrate and having an independently deformable transparent membrane, and each membrane curves into the cavity and the membrane separates two regions having a fluid a different refractive index and an electrode located in a vicinity of the membrane , the amount of deformation of the membrane is determined by an electric field applied between the electrode and the membrane, and the curving the membrane into a cavity formed in the substrate, deforming the membrane comprises decreasing a thickness of the second region, and applying an electrostatic force to the membrane (as in claims 33, 45, 47, 48, 51, 52, 54, and 62 – 64) and a deformable transparent membrane separating two refractive regions, each of refractive regions comprising a fluid with a different refractive index and an amount of deformation of transparent membrane determines an amount of refraction caused to a light beam transmitted by an adaptive lens and a transparent liquid having an index of refraction different from that of a fluid on a side of the membrane away from the base and the liquid located between the membrane and the base ( as in claims 1, 14, 22 and 65).

Art Unit: 2873

3. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
